

A Group About Groups

Personal development On-going group | Course leader Jenner Roth

This group is intended for people who want to learn more about being in a group, different kinds of groups, group leadership and group work. Participants will also have an opportunity to run a group, have feedback and discuss their experience.

The group is limited to ten participants.

The group will be led by Jenner Roth, who will be assisted by Gill Doust.

Terry Cooper, Gill Doust, Judy Hargreaves and Anna Patterson will each present a session on their skill and special interest in working with different types of groups.
