

Always Women In The World

Personal development On-going group | Course leader Jenner Roth

Always Women in the World is an annual residential on-going workshop open by invitation to women who have worked with Jenner before. Over the past thirty-seven years, Jenner has organised and worked with women's groups, finding there a particular energy and motivation towards growth and change that continues to stimulate and excite her.

The general theme of the workshop is who we are as women in the world, what we make of the world and what it makes us. We look at issues of growth and autonomy, roles, motivations and successes, and, most important, how we take and abdicate power, responsibility and excitement in our lives. Each year we explore a specific subject.

Dates for 2018

Five-day residential

Thursday, November 1, 5pm - Monday, November 5, 2pm, 2018.

Price

The cost for this course to be confirmed.

How to enquire

If you are interested in joining the waiting list for the 2017 group and you have worked with Jenner before, please write to her directly at the address below.

