

Open House

Saturday, May 9, 2015 - 10am-12.30pm

We would like to invite you to visit our psychotherapy practice and centre.

You will be welcomed from 10am by our psychotherapists and health practitioners to information talks, experiential sessions and conversations about our work.

Whether your interest is in personal or professional development, come along to meet us and find out about individual, family and couples therapy, workshops, on-going groups, supervision, seminars and training modules.

There is no charge for this event.

Refreshments will be available throughout the morning.
